Manager's message

The "silly season" is over, family and friends have gone home and the rushing around has finished. You had a wonderful time with the children and grandchildren, and now it's time to relax and pamper yourself. Why not take advantage of our special accommodation offers and spend a few days or even a week in beautiful Port Macquarie.

Spend the day or a couple of hours at Amber Healing Farm (amberhealingfarm.com.au) having a massage, healing treatment, morning or afternoon tea or a sumptuous organic lunch. Aqua Vitae Day Spa (aquavitae.com.au) and Port Macquarie Day Spa (portdayspa.com.au) offer a range of massages and pamper packages to make you feel like a queen or princess.

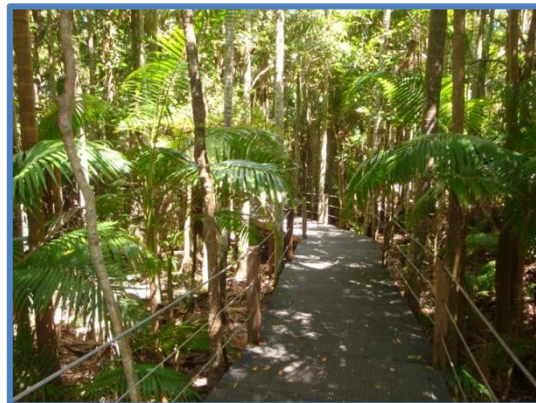

Spend some time under the cool green canopy at Sea Acres National Park and Rainforest Centre. This is a place of natural beauty protecting rare coastal rainforest at Shelly Beach, only a few minutes drive from our park. The elevated 1.3 kilometre rainforest boardwalk is wheelchair accessible, pram and stroller friendly. Allow an hour for the boardwalk and please wear flat walking shoes. You can explore the rainforest at your own pace with informative self-guiding information, or take a guided tour with a local rainforest guide. Then adjourn to the Rainforest Café for a delicious morning or afternoon tea or lunch.

There are several local wineries in and around Port Macquarie. Rose's Vineyard at Lake Innes is a family run vineyard offering wine tastings through the cellar door from 11 am to 5 pm every day (except Christmas Day). Their six different wines are made only from grapes grown on their property which are picked in the early mornings of January and February. White and rosé wines find their way to the cellar door around July of the year they were picked, while red wines return a year later having spent much longer in oak barrels.

After sampling a sip of wine or two, treat your tastebuds to an alfresco meal at the Little Fish Café, overlooking the lush vineyards framed by Jacaranda and Magnolia trees. Relax on the verandah or in the gardens and dine on delicious modern Australian cuisine, with a menu that changes with the season.

The perfect finish to your relaxing day out is to sit back on the outdoor deck of one of our Deluxe Seabreeze Cabins, enjoying a cool drink and maybe a plate of "nibbles" while the evening breeze flows around you.

Joke...

"The Policeman pulled over a car and strolled up to the driver's window: "Excuse me sir, but do you know that you're driving without a rear light?"

The driver jumped out and ran to the rear of his car and let out a whimpering groan. The driver seemed so genuinely distressed that the policeman took a sympathetic view: "Don't take it so hard; it's not all that serious of an offence...."

"Isn't it" the driver cried, "Where's my caravan gone?"

From all the team at Port Macquarie Holiday Cabins we hope you enjoy your stay with us!
